W. E. HORNER,
Dean of the Medical Faculty.

New Publications.—The following interesting works have recently been published by Messrs. Lea & Blanchard:

PHILLIPS on the Nature, Causes, Treatment, &c., of Scrofula. See Review in the present No. of this Journal.

CARPENTER's Elements of Physiology. (See notice in this No., p. 179.)

SIMON's Animal Chemistry, Part II., completing the work.

HORNER's United States Dissector. This work has been entirely re-written.

A new edition of DUNGLISON's Medical Dictionary.

KIRBY & SPENCE's Elements of the Natural History of Insects. This work treats of the manners and economy of insects, their metamorphoses, food, stratagems, habitations, societies, hybernation, instinct, &c. &c. &c.

Works Preparing for Publication.—We have pleasure in announcing the following valuable works as being in preparation for publication by Messrs. Lea & Blanchard:

CARPENTER's Animal Physiology, revised by the author for republication in this country. Also Comparative Physiology, by the same author.

ROYLE's Manual of Materia Medica and Therapeutics. We have seen a portion of this work; the illustrations are very beautiful.

JONES' Treatise on Ophthalmic Medicine and Surgery.

Small Books on great subjects. Some of these are well worthy the attention of the profession.

HASSE's Pathological Anatomy of the Organs of Circulation and Respiration.

METCALFE on Caloric. See Review in this Journal for April last.

A complete Medical Botany, by Dr. R. E. GRIFFITH. With numerous illustrations.
